COLORADO FREE SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of the trustees of the Colorado Free School Association was held at the Pitt street building last Monday. James E. Piper, Vice President, in the chair, and the following members present: James E. Piper, Thos. H. Davis, A. S. Perreper, George P. Douglass, George W. Simms, George L. Seaton, J. McK. Ware, George W. Bryant, Rev. C. Robinson. The minutes of the last meeting were read and received after a lengthy discussion over that portion relating to a letter that had been sent to the white school board, which it was said had not emanated from this board. George W. Bryant, the secretary, was reprimanded by some of the trustees for the contents of the letter referred to, and which, it was said, were untrue. It was moved by Rev. C. Robinson and seconded by George P. Douglass, that a committee of three be appointed to ask the return of said letter or a copy, and the motion being carried, the following committee was appointed: Geo. P. Douglass, George W. Simms and Thomas H. Davis. It was moved by George P. Douglass and seconded by J. McK. Ware, that George W. Bryant, the secretary, shall enter into bond of one thousand dollars before collecting any more money for this association, and the motion was carried. It was moved by Rev. C. Robinson and seconded by George P. Douglass, that the former president of the association receive twelve dollars and fifty cents per month for extra services during the time they were in his position, and the motion was carried. After a discussion on the action of some of the trustees the meeting adjourned to reassemble on the second Monday in August.

CORPORATION COURT Judge E. M. Lowe presiding.—To-day, Com. vs. Joseph Padgett, on four indictments for extorting money, was continued on behalf of the defendant, and the witnesses recognized.

Com. vs. James T. Burnett, on an indictment for malicious wounding; jury sworn; verdict of not guilty; prisoner discharged and surety in recognizance relieved.

L. Eichberg was exonerated from an erroneous assessment of taxes.

A venire was awarded for sixteen additional jurors, returnable to-morrow morning.

Fowler's heirs vs. Mills; affidavit filed, and subpoena duces tecum was awarded against the clerk of the County Court, returnable to-morrow morning.

Rule against George Burnett was discharged. Douglass & Bro. vs. Gaban et al.; in chancery; case in progress.

Court adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—Mr. August Hartswook met with a serious accident, yesterday, by jumping from the south bound mail train of the Virginia Midland Railroad at Elmonting Station, Nelson county. It appears Mr. Hartswook intended to get off this train at Elmonting, and on arriving there noticing that the train would not stop, he jumped off, and striking a platform, he was knocked back against the cars, breaking both legs and receiving other injuries. The train was immediately stopped, and the unfortunate man taken on the cars, and on arriving at Amherst the professional services of Dr. Christian were obtained. Dr. Christian accompanied him to Lynchburg, and on arrival there he was taken to the Piedmont House, where all possible attention was given him, and at last accounts he was doing very well, under the circumstances.

THIEF DETECTED.—While Mr. Alexander McBurney was in the rear of his store on King, near Washington street, early this morning, waiting on a customer, he heard the click of the broken spring on the money drawer under the counter, near the front window, and hastily running there saw a colored woman burying across the street in the direction of the M. P. Church, and upon opening the drawer missed a fifty cent note, the only money that had been left in it the night before. He instantly pursued the thief and caught her in the yard of Mr. Kemp, whither she had run to conceal herself, and found the stolen money in her hand. She was scared almost to death and begged so hard to be allowed to go free that her urgent appeal was granted.

GAME LAWS.—An adjourned meeting of gentlemen of the District of Columbia who are inclined in the way of field sports will be held to-morrow evening for the purpose of considering the propriety of drafting suitable game laws to be presented to Congress at its next session. The Republican of that city says: It is a fact well known to every true sportsman that if something is not speedily done to protect the game in this vicinity its extermination by pothunters will in a few years be accomplished. It is therefore hoped that by unity of action on the part of those interested such laws may be drafted and favorable action secured at the next session of Congress as will afford the necessary protection.

POLICE REPORT.—The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since yesterday afternoon: Two boys, one white and the other colored, for trying to gouge each other's eyes out and eat up each other's faces, were taken to the station house, but released when the excitement of the conflict wore off and the dismal feelings resulting from solitary confinement behind iron bars sickened over them; George Swansbury, who while under the influence of liquor made a violent assault upon all the members of his family, raising an alarm thereby and attracting a large crowd, and afterwards for attacking Constable Burnett, was looked up until he becomes sober enough to be tried.

LAW SUIT.—In the Equity Court of the District of Columbia, yesterday, Alexandria and Washington Railroad Company vs. Wilks. Restraining order discharged; original and amended bills retained until the account is stated; bonds in Wilks' case declared valid, as well as the trust deed in relation to the same; account ordered between Thornton and Wilks, and auditor directed within 79 days to report account between Thornton and the railroad company, and as to the execution and validity of 9th article of the decree of the Virginia Court of Appeals.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHAS.—The following officers of Oriental Lodge, No. 6, Knights of Pythias were installed at their Castle hall, last evening, by P. C. Wm. H. May, assisted by P. C. J. Milton Buchanan and R. C. Lee; Chancellor Commander, F. Baker; V. C. Wm. H. Smith; Prelate, Wm. H. May; P. C. J. Milton. The U. C. postponed his appointments until the next regular meeting, when the Master-at-arms, O. S. and I. S., will be installed.

TRESPASS CASE.—Mr. Nelson Vorce, of the county, has had a warrant issued for the arrest of Mr. John R. Johnson, a neighbor, for allowing his chickens and turkeys to trespass upon the complainant's oat patch, and the case will be tried this afternoon. Mr. Johnson has lost many of his fowls by poisoned corn, said to have been sprinkled by the prosecutor, and thinks it right hard that in addition he should be arrested for trespass.

MONTPELIER HUMANE ASSOCIATION.—As heretofore stated in the Gazette, the drawing of the lottery of the Montpelier Humane Association, to have taken place in this city to-morrow, has been postponed. The 30th of September has been fixed upon as the day upon which the deferred drawing will certainly take place, or the amount of their investments be returned to the ticket-holders.

COUNTY TREASURER.—Mr. Jefferson Tacey, the newly appointed Treasurer of Alexandria county, qualified this afternoon before Judge Sangster in this city. His official bond was for $35,000, with Messrs. Lewis McKenzie, Henry Strauss and Lewis Stein as his sureties. Mr. Tacey was appointed in place of John B. Syphax, colored, who was elected, but could not give the required bond.

C. & O. CANAL.—The receipts of the Canal Company for the week ending July 10 were: From Cumberland, $22,111.68; Georgetown, $2,100; Hancock, $60.61; Williamsport, $244.16; total, $24,416.45. Accrued revenue for the week, $14,825.82. Two hundred and fifty boats, carrying 28,324 tons of coal, left Cumberland during the same period.

THE COAL TRADE.—In consequence of the large supply of coal on hand, and the falling off in the demand, some of the companies engaged in the coal trade have given orders to their boatmen to tie up when they have discharged their cargoes, and will, it is said, suspend mining operations, near Cumberland, until business improves.

ATTEMPTED INCENDIARISM.—The family of Mr. Lipman Gantzberger, who live in the extreme Western part of the city, heard a noise in their stable last night, and upon going there heard parties running away and found that an attempt had been made to set fire to the premises.

DEATH OF AN ALEXANDRIA PROPERTY-HOLDER.—Mr. Loeffler, the owner of the old foundry, at the intersection of Pitt and Wilkes streets, died in Baltimore a few days ago, after an illness of only a few hours.

COMMITTEE ON LIGHT.—The City Council Committee on Light met this evening, and organized by the election of Alderman C. C. Smoot as chairman.

TAXES.—Tax payers should remember that to-morrow is the last day they can save five per cent upon their tax bills.

Fall of a Portion of a Hotel—Fatal Result.

LYNCHBURG, Va., July 14.—This morning about four o'clock, the half of the rear portion of the City Hotel fell, from the roof down, with a terrible smash, burying in the ruins Mrs. Brown, sister of L. F. Lucado, and T. E. Harris, merchandise broker, and a negro man and child. The alarm was sounded as soon as possible, and the Hook and Ladder Department were soon on the spot at work. The negro man was the first to be rescued, who was considerably bruised, and Mr. Harris next, but the extent of his injuries will not be known until the reaction takes place. Mr. Brown was killed, and also the negro child. The building was occupied as a boarding house, Mr. F. M. Hickie, proprietor. A complete wreck was made of the rear of the building. The cause of the disaster was the crumbling of the outside wall, which was built of machine pressed brick. The bodies of Mrs. Brown and the child had not been rescued up to 3 o'clock this evening.

University Boat Race.

SARATOGA, July 14.—In the University boat race to-day, Cornell is the winner; Columbia second, and Harvard third.

SARATOGA, July 14.—The result of the race is officially declared as follows: Cornell first, Columbia second, Harvard third, Dartmouth fourth, Yale fifth, others straggled.—There was great enthusiasm over the Cornell crew. They were carried back and forth before the grand stand amid enthusiastic demonstrations.

ITHACA, N. Y., July 14.—The news of Cornell's second and greatest victory has aroused the most intense enthusiasm here. The great fire bell and other bells are ringing, the University chimes pealing; bombs and fire crackers exploding, guns firing and business places closed &c.

Crop Reports.

ST. PAUL, July 14.—The Pioneer Press publishes this morning special crop reports from all parts of the State. From every quarter the prospect is good for above an average yield of all small grains, especially wheat and barley. Potatoes also promise unusually well, there being very little trouble with the bug this season. Corn is backward but strong and healthy, and the weather is at present very favorable to its growth. Grasshoppers are reported in the Southern portions of the State, but thus far have not done much damage.

Killed.

BEAVER MEADOW, Pa., July 14.—Frank Brogan, a respected citizen of this place was killed to-day, by a fall of dirt in an old coal mine near here.

BALTIMORE, July 14.—Thomas McCarthy, aged 21, a brakeman on the Northern Central Railroad, was run over by a train of cars at the Union depot in this city, to-day. His head was severed from his body.
